Plaintiff,

v.

ANGELICA OROZCO,

Defendant.

Case No. 23-mj-02122 DUTY

ORDER OF DETENTION AFTER HEARING (18 U.S.C. § 3148(b):
Allegations of Violation of Pretrial
Conditions of Release)

On motion of the Government involving an alleged violation of conditions of pretrial release, and a warrant for arrest,

1. The Court finds there is:

☐ probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a federal, state, or local crime while on release and/or

☒ clear and convincing evidence that the defendant has violated a condition of release; and

2. ☒ Based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), there is no condition or combination of conditions of release that will assure that the

1 defendant will not pose a danger to the safety or any other person or the
2 community;

3 --risk of flight: instant allegation (failure to appear)

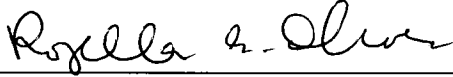

4 --danger to the community:

5 ☐ The defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of 6 conditions of release.

- 7 3. ☐ There is probable cause to believe that, while on release, the defendant
8 committed a federal, state, or local felony, and the presumption that no
9 condition or combination of conditions will assure that the person will 10 not pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community has 11 not been rebutted.
